"December's labour market finished the year in a strong position, with 9 of the 14 industries posting job gains," said Ahu Yildirmaz, vice president and co-head of the ADP Research Institute. "The payroll increase was largely reflective of employment growth in trade, transportation and utilities, as well as construction and public administration. However, manufacturing and natural resources and mining experienced a decline."

The November total of jobs added was revised down from 30,900 to 27,600.

The January 2020 ADP Canada National Employment Report will be released at 8:30a.m.ET on February 20, 2020.
