"We saw modest gains in the month of March," said Ahu Yildirmaz, vice president and co-head of the ADP Research Institute. "Leading job growth was manufacturing, which posted the strongest gains in a year. Construction and professional services rebounded while natural resources and mining, trade, information and financial services continued to struggle."

The February total of jobs added was revised down from 36,200 to -21,200.

The April 2019 ADP Canada National Employment Report will be released at 8:30a.m.ET on May 16, 2019.
