"In April, the labor market recorded the third straight month of gains despite tightening restrictions due to an increase in COVID-19 cases," said Nela Richardson, chief economist, ADP. "Nearly every sector added jobs, with only information contracting slightly. Leisure and hospitality and trade, transportation and utilities led job growth along with other service-producing industries, while the goods-producing industries remained flat."

The March total of jobs added was revised from 634,800 to 266,700.

The May 2021 ADP Canada National Employment Report will be released at 8:30a.m.ET on June 17, 2021.
